

CCS PRESEASON RANKINGS

Updated: November 15, 2021

Welcome to a new season! Similar to the boys rankings, as many wrestlers did not post any notable results in 2020-2021, the preseason rankings will only include a list to start – as the season progresses, I will include the most recent results and data. Also, understand that it is difficult to rank competitors beyond the top 2-3 at most weight classes because of last year's absence so for now, consider this a very rough ranking. The list biases juniors and seniors for the simple reason they have some historical track record (2019-2020) whereas many with freshman or sophomore standing have little/no results to go on. I also tried to separate out the returning state qualifiers/medalists to ensure they occupy the top spots – but again, this could change.

I would expect significant revisions (especially in the 4+ range) once the season gets underway. The list will also grow to 15+ wrestlers per weight class as more competitors will be added with new results tallied. A couple weekends in, we'll get a better sense of who's who. As always, rankings criteria will follow those used in most tournaments – namely, head-to-head results, previous state/CCS medalist and qualifier, common opponents, and overall body of work. As I also provide the state rankings, I will include a wrestler's state # where applicable.
